

Isabella Segal FCA

Curriculum Vitae

Isabella has been involved in Forensic Accounting for a number of years. She has been instructed on matters of various scope and size for solicitors, loss assessors, businesses and individuals.

Professional Qualifications

- Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales
- Qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1980
- Member of the Academy of Experts – admitted 1999

Court History

- Given evidence in the High Court and County Court.

Work

- Partner in Nyman Libson Paul, Chartered Accountants
- Responsible Individual by the Institute of Chartered Accountants for Audit purposes.
- General practice partner responsible for a portfolio of sme and entrepreneurial clients providing accountancy, audit, taxation and financial advice.
- Partner responsible for the Forensic Accounting department at Nyman Libson Paul

Areas of Expertise

- Accounting
- Auditing
- Management Consultancy
- Taxation
- Financial advice

Specialist Experience in Forensic Accounting

- Provision of litigation support since 1999
- Acted as Expert Witness on an increasing number of appointments
- Experienced in the following areas:-
 - Matrimonial Settlements
 - Partnership Disputes
 - Business Valuations
 - Share Valuations
 - Business Interruption Claims
 - Commercial Disputes
 - Contractual Disputes
 - Fraud Investigation

Work History

2011 - Present	Nyman Libson Paul, Chartered Accountants
2008 - 2011	Landau Morley LLP, Chartered Accountants
1989 - 2008	ISP Chartered Accountants