Professional Profile

I am a Consultant Podiatric Surgeon with over 20 years' experience within the NHS and have held a substantive Consultant post since January 2015. I am currently Head of Podiatric Surgery at Homerton Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust.

I provide independent medicolegal opinion in civil litigation on behalf of both Claimant and Defendant parties.

My clinical expertise includes the conservative and surgical management of foot and ankle pathology, including diabetic foot disease and limb salvage within a multidisciplinary setting. I have performed in excess of 4,000 surgical procedures.

I am actively involved in teaching, training, and examining postgraduate podiatric surgeons and hold an honorary Fellowship at Ulster University.

I understand my duty to the Court and comply with Part 35 of the Civil Procedure Rules and associated Practice Directions.

Areas of Expertise
