Nettleham Medical Practice, 14 Lodge Lane, Nettleham, Lincoln, LN2 2RS
- 5. Medico-Legal Experience: 1982 – 2026 I prepare medico-legal reports for both Claimant and Defendant (70% to 28%) and 2% Single Joint Expert. I prepare on average 300 reports per year. (previously up to 500 reports per year).
I attend Court to give expert evidence up to 2 occasions per year.
- 6. Areas of Expertise as an Expert Witness:
- a) General plastic surgery problems.
  - b) Soft tissue injuries of the hands, together with fractures of finger bones, but not wrist injuries.
  - c) Cosmetic surgery of the face, breasts, abdomen, etc.
  - d) Particular areas of interest: pressure sores.
- 7. Learned Societies: British Association of Aesthetic Plastic Surgeons (BAAPS)
British Society for Surgery of the Hand (BSSH)
- 8. Availability: The waiting time for examination for personal injury non-urgent medical legal matters is less than one month. I am prepared to try and see patients for consultation at short notice, if time allows. This must be done through personal negotiation with the solicitor or insurance organisation. Photographs are nearly always taken at the time of the consultation and the cost incorporated in the fee for the report. The current waiting time for reports from review of medical records only is approximately 2 to 3 months. I am willing to make prison visits and travel to see patients at home if they are disabled.
- 9. Fees: Personal injury report fees average £800-£1,000 + VAT per report, based on a fee scale of £300 + VAT per hour of work. Medical negligence report fees average £1,050 - £2,800 + VAT based on a fee scale of £350 + VAT per hour of work.
I expect payment of fees within 18 months. Interest will be charged for late payment after 18 months (unless further delayed payment has been agreed) under the meaning of “Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1988.”
